

A photograph of a sliding glass door with a screen. The door is partially open, revealing a green lawn and trees outside. A trampoline is visible in the background. The image is annotated with four text boxes and arrows: 'Hook & Loop Tape' points to the top edge of the screen; 'magnets' points to the bottom edge of the screen; 'add another screen' points to the bottom edge of the door frame; and an unlabeled arrow points to the right edge of the screen.
